Every site ships with a trained AI assistant

It answers property, policy, and local-area questions, and says so when it does not know.

- * Edit every text, image, link, price, review, and recommendation.
- * Add, remove, hide, rename, and reorder sections; change navigation and page layout.

Hosting, services, and support

We keep the website published, working, and supported.

- * The $50 monthly service includes hosting on your domain or a free pleasant.vacations subdomain, editor, AI assistant, forms, coupons, review collection, publishing, maintenance, and updates.
- * Support begins through the Lazy™ chat assistant and escalates when necessary. Serious technical problems can move to a live working session.
- * The Host Wishlist collects product requests. We implement selected requests that benefit the shared product; it does not include custom development.
- * Maintenance keeps existing capabilities working. A feature request asks the product to work differently.

YOUR ACCOUNT

You own it.

Your domain, content, guest information, guest relationships, booking account, and payments remain yours. Lazy™ does not process payments, keep passwords, or take a booking commission.

You may leave at any time. We provide and publish a hosting-ready static website. The editor, AI assistant, forms, coupons, and review-collection services stop when the subscription ends.
